The Logo

The Luduzo mark is a Spartan helmet with a swept plume — discipline and competition in a single silhouette. Keep clear space around it equal to the height of the plume, and never recolor, stretch, or add effects. The icon works alone; the lockups pair it with the Montserrat ExtraBold wordmark.

Color

Plume Gold and Gladiator Black carry the identity. Gold is an accent used sparingly against black — never a flood fill. The neutrals build structure and the two status colors handle wins and alerts.

Typography

Montserrat ExtraBold matches the wordmark for display and headings. Inter handles body and UI text for clarity in dense tables and forms. Both are free on Google Fonts.

In Product

The identity applied to the product. Gold anchors the single most important metric and the primary action; everything else stays black and neutral.

Do & Don't

Do

- Use gold as a sharp accent on black or white.
- Keep clear space equal to the plume height.
- Set headlines in Montserrat, body in Inter.
- Reserve gold for the single key element on screen.
- Use the app icon at small sizes.

Don't

- Flood large areas with gold.
- Recolor or gradient the helmet.
- Stretch, rotate, or add shadow to the logo.
- Place the mark on busy backgrounds.
- Swap in a different headline typeface.
